M'AULIFFE CASE CAUSES GREAT CROWD OF QUAKERS A BIG POLICE SHAKE UP.

ferred from the West Forty-seventh Street Station to West One HundredthStreetand Schmittberger Takes HisPlace-Policeman Ready Goes to West Twentieth Street Station.

The powers that rule the police force are stirring themselves a last in the McAuliffe case Vigorous steps were taken today within the force itself looking toward a solution of the murder of the anti-Glennon witness.

Three important police changes were made as the direct result of the efforts of The World to bring the po lice murderers to book.

Capt. Donohue, commander of the West Forty-seventh street station where McAuliffe was confined over night after his arrest for drunken ness, was to-day transferred to the West One Hundredth street station.

Capt. Schmittberger, who is less in sympathy with the "system" than any New York captain, was brought down from West One Hundredth street to take Donohue's place. He is to go to work on the case and try to court the man who it is alleged was not McAuliffe, but a dummy, was transferred to the West Twentieth street station.

Policeman John J. Barnes was transferred to the Tenderloin pre-
